QUORUM

Vice-Chair McGrath called the meeting to order and asked for a moment of silence to honor Zeke Grader, a long-time advocate for fisheries protection and water quality.

Division Chief Anna Torres introduced new Staff Services Analyst Kim Yee, Seasonal Clerk Janet Mack, and Seasonal Clerk Bonnie Lam. Senior Scientist Kevin Lunde introduced new Environmental Scientist Kristina Yoshida.

State Board Member Tam Doduc updated the Board about drought conservation efforts and next week's State Board Meeting. She also described ongoing discussions about resource allocation and the Lean Six Sigma approach to project management.

Item 2 - Public Forum

Bill McNicholas, local resident participating on a newly formed committee, urged the Board to expedite cleanup of the Prosperity Cleaners site in Marinwood. Raymond Day, a Marinwood resident, discussed the site's soil impacts and its potential for indoor air exposure. He noted that local residents want interim measures implemented immediately. Ann Moran, a Casa Marinwood board member, discussed the history of flooding in the area. Stephen Nestle, raised concerns about misleading statements in the press and Board staff not acknowledging the severity of the situation. Renee Silveira, an adjacent property owner, expressed concern about the new data indicating that the Prosperity Cleaners' plume has spread beneath the Silveira's property.

Item 3 - 2015 Dr. Teng-chung Wu Pollution Prevention Award – Presentation of Award to Central Contra Costa Sanitary District

Board Member Muller gave tribute to former Board staff member, Dr. Teng-chung Wu, who was an early proponent of pollution prevention. Environmental Scientist James Parrish made the presentation to the Board, emphasizing the extensive effort the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District had undertaken to reduce the disposal of "flushable wipes" to the sanitary sewer system. Board Member Muller presented the award to Melody LaBella, who accepted it on behalf of the District. Ms. LaBella thanked the Board and described the challenges and successes with changing consumer habits.

Sustained Superior Accomplishment Award

Vice-Chair McGrath presented the Sustained Superior Accomplishment Award to Janet O'Hara and reported on her character and consistent, high-quality work on various projects at the Water Board, including PCB contaminant identification in caulk at Candlestick Park, bacteria TMDL, and a multitude of other projects Ms. O'Hara has worked on.
